LIVE MUSIC @ THE GOV

Since 1993, when the Tonkin family took over, The Gov has established itself as South Australia's leading live music venue, highly regarded by musicians and performers alike.

It's not just a venue; within these walls music is a way of life.

"... you walk in here, see all the people who have played before you and it's not hard to feel like you're on hallowed ground."

- John Butler
