ABOUT

Initially named and known as The Albion Hotel in 1869, this iconic building spans a vibrant history as popular hot spots, The Roxy and The Motel. 150 years later, this South Melbourne institution returns to its roots and namesake, The Albion.

Just a stone's throw away from the city centre, Docklands and the MCEC, Melbourne's newest lifestyle venue sprawls three floors with decadent lounge and dedicated function level, as well as an incredible rooftop offering unprecedented views of the Melbourne CBD.

The Albion's unique design and capabilities can host all styles of large-scale stand up cocktail and intimate sit down occasions. Our dedicated team take pride in delivering outstanding functions with carefully curated canapes and thoughtfully selected premium beverages, cementing an enjoyable and memorable experience for you and your guests.

THE LOUNGE

Flaunting warm timber and leather with refined brass accents in an open and opulent setting, The Lounge is perfect for celebrations for up to 350 guests. The space embodies all elements for the finest affair; indulge in roaming delicacies with intimate booth seating and private bar for your guests to enjoy as well as exclusive smoking deck and lift to deliver a first-class experience.

For a more intimate affair, The VIP Room hosts groups of up to 40 guests standing with mini bar, fireplace, private entrance and bathrooms. This elegant space is perfect for milestone birthdays, hen's parties or indulging VIP guests for an exclusive closed-door event.
