

THIS IS OUR REPUBLIC

Since 1865, The Republic Hotel has hugged the corner of Pitt and Bridge Streets, at the heart of the Sydney CBD. As the city's commercial centre has expanded around it, the Republic has grown up too, from a single-storey pub to a four-level landmark. On each floor you'll find a distinctly different establishment, all under the banner of one Republic.

At the heart of the city, The Republic Hotel is a perfectly placed meeting point. Within our four floors you'll find three distinct spaces ready for any occasion, from an intimate, sit-down dinner in the tranquillity of Republic Dining Room to a cocktail celebration up on Taylor's Rooftop.

Step into our Republic, and exercise your constitutional right to free choice, a happy palate and good times.
