Picture this: you're strolling down the street, minding your own business, when you catch a whiff of something truly irresistible. 'The First Horseman' 2019 – Imperial Stout

Coffee, Chocolate, Bringthedarkness	150ml	12
9.5% ABV	350ml	24

The first beer to be released upon the world from our Dark Deeds series is a hat tip to the White Rider, the first of the four Horseman of the Apocalypse. Symbolizing a conquest of dark over light.

We've been cellaring this keg for a solid 5 years and this is the only keg in existence. You're invited to take the opportunity and take it for a taste alongside the Fourth Horseman.

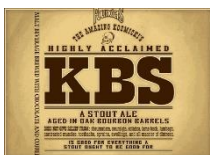

'The Fourth Horseman' 2022 – Imperial Stout

Coffee, Chocolate, Bringthedarkness	150ml	12
12% ABV	350ml	24

Dark and thick, our 2022 Imperial Stout is reminiscent of old timey chocolate milk, where they used to melt bars down and add cream right into the cauldron. Built upon this sweet base are layers of heavy chocolate, coffee, and balancing booze on the back end.

The fourth beer to be released upon the world in our straight Imperial Stout series is a nod to the skeletal rider upon the Pale Horse, wielding his scythe. Death, the fourth and final of the four Horsemen of the Apocalypse.

Founders 'KBS' 2019

– BBA Imperial Stout with Chocolate, Coffee & Vanilla

Coffee, Chocolate, Bourbon	150ml	16
12.2% ABV	350ml	34

Every Sip, Its Own Reward – We've been cellaring this keg since we moved into our home in Glen Iris. It's a real treat for us to showcase a beer that we had no help in brewing, a first for the taproom. Since we're leaving home for good, what better time to share!

The beer that taught us that patience truly is a virtue, this big, bold imperial stout is brewed with premium chocolate and coffee then aged in bourbon barrels that introduce powerful notes of vanilla, cocoa, and charred oak. KBS is a luxuriant, full-bodied drinking experience that emanates sophistication while honouring its craft beer roots.

Hops: Nugget, Willamette

Malts: Oaks, Chocolate, Roasted Barley

'Once More Into The Fray' 2023

– The one... the only... Bourbon Barrel Aged Imperial Stout

Whisky, Vanilla, Oak	150ml	22
13.8% ABV	350ml	47

*There is just something mystical about the imperial stout. And well .
..one aged in bourbon barrels, that transcends into magical territory.*

That thick, dark, viscous liquid more akin to the black blood of the earth than a lager or pale ale. That dark stormy glass in which no light can escape, always drawing your eye in deeper like an event horizon. A beer truly best served in a brandy glass or tulip paired with a warm fire, good friends, and maybe even a little self-reflection.

There's just something special about getting some of that oak out of the backwoods of Kentucky. The home of bourbon. It's almost romantic; that spirit ageing away in its wooden vessel with those sweet, sweet vanilla, coconut, and tannic flavours giving you oak and that sultry colour. There's nothing quite like ageing an imperial stout in a Kentucky bourbon barrel.

And so, we laid down ten barrels of Imperial Stout into a mix of Jim Beam and Heaven Hill Barrels. And we waited.

And then we tasted some imperial stout barrels. . . and we waited some more.

And then again we tasted some imperial stout barrels. . . and then we waited a little longer.

And then we tasted some imperial stout barrels and there it was. 13.3% ABV. Thick, luscious, oaky, vanillin, coconut, bourbon. There it was...

Once More into the Fray. A beer to be reckoned with, both in its boldness and its nuance. An intense journey, akin to walking into a blizzard and facing the elements. Perhaps this poem is the motto of all you Survivor Types out there.

*"Once More into the Fray.
Into the last good fight I'll ever know.
Live and die on this day.
Live and die on this day."*
